Welcome to All Saints!

We are a caring community of faith in the Episcopal tradition focused on common worship, a commitment to spiritual growth, and being part of “the Jesus Movement.” Your presence here is a blessing! This leaflet provides a guide for the service. Hymnals and copies of the Book of Common Prayer are available in the pews in the church. Please feel free to use them.

Finding Your Way Around.

- Restrooms are located in the parish house.
- All are welcome at social hour following the Sunday service.
- Welcome Coordinators (wearing nametags) are glad to answer questions and have a gift for each first-time visitor.
- Children are welcome as full participants in all services here. Please explore the children’s table to the right of the nave altar in the church.
- Large print versions of this bulletin are available upon request.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider            The Lord be with you.
People                And also with you.
Presider            Let us pray.

Almighty God, whose Son our Savior Jesus Christ is the light of the world: Grant that your people, illumined by your Word and Sacraments, may shine with the radiance of Christ's glory, that he may be known, worshipped, and obeyed to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

WE PROCLAIM AND RESPOND TO THE WORD OF GOD

Please be seated. Proclamation of the word assumes an oral tradition. Consider just listening to the texts and allowing God to speak to you through them.

THE FIRST READING

Reader: Henry Kettell

1 Samuel 3:1-20

Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the LORD under Eli. The word of the LORD was rare in those days; visions were not widespread.

At that time Eli, whose eyesight had begun to grow dim so that he could not see, was lying down in his room; the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was. Then the LORD called, “Samuel! Samuel!” and he said, “Here I am!” and ran to Eli, and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” But he said, “I did not call; lie down again.” So he went and lay down. The LORD called again, “Samuel!” Samuel got up and went to Eli, and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” But he said, “I did not call, my son; lie down again.” Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, and the word of the LORD had not yet been revealed to him. The LORD called Samuel again, a third time. And he got up and went to Eli, and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” Then Eli perceived that the LORD was calling the boy. Therefore Eli said to Samuel, “Go, lie down; and if he calls you, you shall say, ‘Speak, LORD, for your servant is listening.’” So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

Now the LORD came and stood there, calling as before, “Samuel! Samuel!” And Samuel said, “Speak, for your servant is listening.” Then the LORD said to Samuel, “See, I am about to do something in Israel that will make both ears of anyone who hears of it tingle. On that day I will fulfill against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from beginning to end. For I have told him that I am about to punish his house forever, for the iniquity that he knew, because his sons were blaspheming God, and he did not restrain them. Therefore I swear to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli’s house shall not be expiated by sacrifice or offering forever.”

Samuel lay there until morning; then he opened the doors of the house of the LORD. Samuel was afraid to tell the vision to Eli. But Eli called Samuel and said, “Samuel, my son.” He said, “Here I am.” Eli said, “What was it that he told you? Do not hide it from me. May God do so to you and more also, if you hide anything from me of all that he told you.” So Samuel told him everything and hid nothing from him. Then he said, “It is the LORD; let him do what seems good to him.”

As Samuel grew up, the LORD was with him and let none of his words fall to the ground. And all Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was a trustworthy prophet of the LORD.

People      Thanks be to God.

RESPONSE
Psalm 139:1-5, 12-17

Sung by the Choir

LORD, you have searched me out and known me; *
you know my sitting down and my rising up; you discern my thoughts from afar.
You trace my journeys and my resting-places *
and are acquainted with all my ways.
Indeed, there is not a word on my lips, *
but you, O LORD, know it altogether.

You press upon me behind and before *
and lay your hand upon me.
Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; *
it is so high that I cannot attain to it.
For you yourself created my inmost parts; *
you knit me together in my mother's womb.
I will thank you because I am marvelously made; * your works are wonderful, and I know it well.
My body was not hidden from you, *
while I was being made in secret and woven in the depths of the earth.
Your eyes beheld my limbs, yet unfinished in the womb; all of them were written in your book; * they were fashioned day by day, when as yet there was none of them.
How deep I find your thoughts, O God! *
how great is the sum of them!
If I were to count them, they would be more in number than the sand; * to count them all, my life span would need to be like yours.

THE SECOND READING
1 Corinthians 6:12-20

Reader: Marianne Evett

“All things are lawful for me,” but not all things are beneficial. “All things are lawful for me,” but I will not be dominated by anything. “Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food,” and God will destroy both one and the other. The body is meant not for fornication but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. And God raised the Lord and will also raise us by his power. Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Should I therefore take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Never! Do you not know that whoever is united to a prostitute becomes one body with her? For it is said, “The two shall be one flesh.” But anyone united to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. Shun fornication! Every sin that a person commits is outside the body; but the fornicator sins against the body itself. Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God, and that you are not your own? For you were bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body.

SEQUENCE HYMN: Blessed Jesus, at thy word

Hymnal 440

THE HOLY GOSPEL + John 1:43-51

Priest        The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
People        Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, "Follow me." Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. Philip found Nathanael and said to him, "We have found him about whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth." Nathanael said to him, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see." When Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him, he said of him, "Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!" Nathanael asked him, "Where did you get to know me?" Jesus answered, "I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you." Nathanael replied, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!" Jesus answered, "Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these." And he said to him, "Very truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man."

Priest        The Gospel of the Lord.
People        Praise to you, Lord Christ.

HOMILY

Preacher: The Rev. Dr. Richard Burden

Following the homily, a period of silence is observed.

The space below is for notes or reflections on the sermon. What words or phrases stand out? What Good News is being proclaimed? Where is the Spirit leading you/us?

At the Presider's invitation, please stand as you are able for AFFIRMATION OF FAITH: Nicene Creed (Enriching our Worship)

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

WE PRAY FOR THE WORLD AND THE CHURCH

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Intercessor: Dorothea Hass

If you would like someone added to the parish prayer list, please visit allsaintsbrookline.org and fill out a request form, or fill out a prayer card and put it in the offering plate, or let the clergy or one of the Daughters of the King know.

The Presider concludes by saying a collect.

Insistent God, by night and day you summon your slumbering people. So stir us with your voice and enlighten our lives with your grace that we give ourselves fully to Christ's call to mission and ministry. Amen.

CONFESSION

Presider Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

All stand or kneel. Silence may be kept.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Presider stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

All may greet one another in the name of Christ. This greeting may take many forms, a handshake, a wave, or, if both persons are comfortable with it, a brief hug.

SANCTUS

Powell S129

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est._____

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

We remember his death, We proclaim his resurrection, We await his coming in glory;

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

WE SHARE GIFTS OF GOD

Presider The Gifts of God for the People of God.

All are invited to the altar for communion or a blessing. If you desire neither, feel free to remain in your seat. If coming forward for communion, please move at the invitation and direction of the ushers and gather all around the altar rail. You may stand or kneel to receive communion. To receive the bread place one hand on top of the other, palms up. Please assist the person with the chalice of wine, by helping to gently guide it to your lips. It is customary to receive both bread and wine. However, if you wish to receive a blessing or one element only, please indicate this request by crossing your arms over your chest. Gluten-free bread is available at your request. Simply ask the person distributing the bread.

Prayers for Healing with the laying on of hands are offered at the Langdon Chapel, for those who desire such prayers, either before or after receiving Communion. Stand or kneel at the rail and, as the Healing Minister approaches, you are invited to say your name and/or the name of the person for whom prayers are requested. Votive candles are near the Columbarium, opposite the Langdon Chapel; feel free to light them for prayer intentions.*

COMMUNION ANTHEM: Blessed are the pure in heart                      H. Walford Davies (1869–1941)

Blessed are the pure in heart,
For they shall see our God;
The secret of the Lord is theirs;
Their soul is Christ's abode.
Still to the lowly soul
He doth Himself impart;
And for His cradle and His throne
Chooseth the pure in heart.

MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES AT ALL SAINTS AND IN THE WORLD

LIFE TOGETHER

Parish Office Closed on Monday. In observance of the Martin Luther King Jr. Holiday there will be not office hours on Monday. Normal office hours and Evening Prayer will resume on Tuesday.

My House Shall Be Called a House of Prayer. Our sanctuary is open daily from 10:00 am to 4:00 pm on Monday through Friday. Come in, pray, or meditate in silence and beauty. To enter the sanctuary during the week, come in through the Parish House door which will be unlocked.

Come, Pray During the Week. For a more formal time of prayer during the week, you may join David, your Parish Administrator, for a simple spoken service of Evening Prayer at 4:00 pm. Evening Prayer is said in the Resting Chapel. This offering combines contemporary and traditional prayers with reading scripture, sanctifying ordinary days, and marking feast days throughout the week. Come join in offering prayers for ourselves and for the world.

Centering Prayer. All are welcome to join the Daughters of the King for twenty minutes of Centering Prayer Thursdays at 6:30 pm in the Resting Chapel. Centering Prayer is a Christian practice of silent meditation.

Art in the Guild Room. The new display in the Guild Room consists of photos by Robert Scott. This second Scott exhibition shows that he continued to produce exciting new work. His focus on nature and animals is a welcome addition to his photographic collection. This Sunday, the artist will join us at social hour.

Stewardship Envelopes. Numbered envelope sets for pledging members for 2018 are in a box in the back of the Sanctuary. For 2018, we are distributing them using a different procedure than in past years. The envelopes for 2018 have not been pre-assigned to parishioners. If you wish a set of envelopes, please take any set and write down your name and the set number on the sign up sheet. It does not matter if your number for 2018 is different than your 2017 number. What is important, particularly if you pay your pledge with cash, is that we have the correct envelope number associated with your name. If you have any questions, feel free to email our treasurer at treasurer@allsaintsbrookline.org

Join the Welcome Ministry Team. Welcome Ministers help people who are new to All Saints feel welcomed and connected to the church. Duties include greeting all people before the Sunday service and chatting with newcomers after the service to provide them with information on All Saints and occasionally escort them to the social hour. Most welcome ministers are assigned one Sunday every four to five weeks. We also work on special projects, like organizing the quarterly newcomer coffee and preparing welcome packets. As part of the Welcome and Evangelism Committee, we meet a few times a year to talk about plans and brainstorm ideas for better outreach. Please consider becoming a part of this vital team. For more information, contact Maggie Hogan at mahogan1@verizon.net or by phone at 617-566-7591.

CHILDREN, YOUTH AND FAMILIES

Children, Youth, and Family Programs. At All Saints Parish, we are committed to providing a loving, inclusive church home for all families. We do this through offering lively Church School programming for Grades Pre K through 5, Youth Group opportunities for Grades 6 through 12, and mission opportunities for kids of all ages and their families. Schola is an amazing opportunity for music and faith education. If you know a family searching for a faith community, invite them to our Sunday morning programs or a youth activity. We will welcome them warmly and help them find a special place in our parish to learn about and to love God. For more information about the our CYFM programming, to contact Kathleen O'Donoghue, our Family Minister, at familyminister@allsaintsbrookline.org.

MISSION

Second Annual Winter Walk to End Homelessness in Boston. On Sunday, 11 February, join our walkers or donate to support the All Saints team walking the two miles through the streets of Boston with our MANNA friends and supporters. "This is our chance to link arms with those who call Boston's streets home. It is our chance to show them that this city cares about their lives and to affirm our commitment to do all it takes to ease their struggles." Boston Health Care for the Homeless, Bridge Over Troubled Waters, Pine Street Inn, Y2Y, and others will benefit from all funds raised. Register to join our team, or donate at <https://www.classy.org/event/the-winter-walk-2018/e146576>. Contact Ginny Adams at GJADAMS1@gmail.com or go to www.winterwalkboston.org for more information.

MANNA Community Lunch on Monday, 22 January. We will be assembling our meal before and after church on Sunday, 21 January. We will join our MANNA guests at the Cathedral of St. Paul in Boston for our hearty lunch and worship service on Monday, 22 January. We also invite parishioners to contribute much-needed non-perishable food ingredients for the meal. If you can help, to learn what staffing is needed and to sign up, go to <https://goo.gl/uvHseL> or signup using the signup sheets on the bulletin board as you leave the sanctuary. For more information, contact Ginny Adams, gjadams1@gmail.com, Fran Bancroft (fran.bancroft@verizon.net), Kathleen O'Connor (koabrams@rcn.com), Sharon Siwiec (dlrow@comcast.net), or Mary Urban-Keary (murban@bu.edu).

Brookline Food Pantry. All Saints is a collection point for donations to the Brookline Food Pantry. Volunteers are needed to bring donations from All Saints Parish to the Food Pantry. If you are interested in this mission opportunity, please sign up on the board in the hallway. For more information about All Saints partnership with the Food Pantry, contact Tom Nutt-Powell at nuttpowell@aol.com

Responding to Natural Disasters. In the aftermath of hurricanes, wildfires, and mudslides we ask your prayers for those affected. Episcopal Relief &

Development works with impacted Episcopal dioceses as they assess damage and coordinate with local congregations to shelter and feed people, and rebuild. You can support ERD financially at <https://goo.gl/AhX4Pk>, or you can sign up as “ready to serve” with ERD at <https://goo.gl/q1j7uM>.

FAITH EXPLORATION

Adult Faith Explorations in the Community. Jonas Barciauskas of our Adult Formation Committee has curated a list of upcoming events in the Boston area that might be of interest to the All Saints Community.

Events include talks on the role of religion in international conflict resolution, non-violent resistance by spiritually oriented communities, and the effects of psychological and neurobiological wellness on moral behavior. Speakers include Canon Sarah Snyder, PhD, Archbishop of Canterbury’s Director of Reconciliation, Bryan Stevenson, author of Just Mercy (<https://goo.gl/LKv297>), and Anna Deveare Smith reprising her play Notes from the Field (<https://goo.gl/QLxFZB>). The list is available on the Adult Faith Explorations (<https://goo.gl/Ym7zon>) page of the All Saints website.

If you have made a pledge, but your name isn't listed, please contact pledge@allsaintsbrookline.org so we can correct our records. We are grateful for all donations, pledged and un-pledged. Pledging allows us to plan a budget and make sound financial decisions and we encourage all parishioners to make a pledge—no amount is too small.

Pledges so far total $381,807, against a financial goal of $400,000. If you have not done so, we ask you to prayerfully consider making a pledge to allow us to meet our financial obligations. You can go to <http://allsaintsbrookline.org/giving/> or simply email your pledge to pledge@allsaintsbrookline.org.
