The Sixth Sunday of Easter + 22 May 2022, 10:30 am

Holy Eucharist + Prayers for Healing: Rite II

We are currently at a HIGH community level of COVID according to the CDC. They recommend that all people over the age of two wear a well-fitting mask indoors, regardless of vaccination status. Everyone who is eligible to get a COVID vaccine/booster is encouraged to do so as soon as possible.

The service is being live-streamed and recorded on our website, YouTube, and Facebook pages.

Christ has entered, not into a sanctuary made with hands, a copy of the true one, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf.

THE COLLECT

Presider God be with you.
People And also with you.
Presider Let us pray.

O God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as surpass our understanding: Pour into our hearts such love towards you, that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

WE PROCLAIM AND RESPOND TO THE WORD OF GOD

Please be seated for the readings.

FIRST READING

Reader: Daniel John

Acts 16:9-15

During the night Paul had a vision: there stood a man of Macedonia pleading with him and saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." When he had seen the vision, we immediately tried to cross over to Macedonia, being convinced that God had called us to proclaim the good news to them.

We set sail from Troas and took a straight course to Samothrace, the following day to Neapolis, and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city for some days. On the sabbath day we went outside the gate by the river, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and spoke to the women who had gathered there. A certain woman named Lydia, a worshiper of God, was listening to us; she was from the city of Thyatira and a dealer in purple cloth. The Lord opened her heart to listen eagerly to what was said by Paul. When she and her household were baptized, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my home." And she prevailed upon us.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.

RESPONSE

Psalm 67

Sung by the choir
George Thalben-Ball (1896-1987)

May God be merciful to us and bless us, *
show us the light of his countenance and come to us.

Let your ways be known upon earth, *
your saving health among all nations.

Let the peoples praise you, O God; *
let all the peoples praise you.

Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, *
for you judge the peoples with equity and guide all the nations upon earth.

Let the peoples praise you, O God; *
let all the peoples praise you.

The earth has brought forth her increase; *
may God, our own God, give us his blessing.

May God give us his blessing, *
and may all the ends of the earth stand in awe of him.

SECOND READING
Revelation 21:10, 22-22:5

Reader: Dorothea Hass

In the spirit the angel carried me away to a great, high mountain and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God.

I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb. And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God is its light, and its lamp is the Lamb. The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it. Its gates will never be shut by day—and there will be no night there. People will bring into it the glory and the honor of the nations. But nothing unclean will enter it, nor anyone who practices abomination or falsehood, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb through the middle of the street of the city. On either side of the river is the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, producing its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. Nothing accursed will be found there any more. But the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him; they will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. And there will be no more night; they need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign forever and ever.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.

THE HOLY GOSPEL + John 14:23-29

Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to Judas (not Iscariot), "Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words; and the word that you hear is not mine, but is from the Father who sent me.

"I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid. You heard me say to you, 'I am going away, and I am coming to you.' If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you this before it occurs, so that when it does occur, you may believe."

Priest The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

HOMILY

Following the homily a period of silence is observed.

The Rev. Tammy Hobbs Miracky

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

RECEIVING COMMUNION. Our bishops do not sanction intinction—dipping the bread into the chalice. When you receive the bread, please consume it immediately. Individuals at higher risk for infection are encouraged to receive the bread only. If you wish to receive the cup, please help guide the chalice to your lips when you sip. If you do not wish to receive the cup, cross your arms over your chest or simply touch the base of the chalice while the chalice bearer says the words of administration. Saying “Amen” afterwards acknowledges your reception of the Sacrament. Remember: Christ is fully present in all elements of Communion.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Adapted from St. Augustine’s Prayer Book

Anyone who does not receive the Sacrament today is invited to say the Prayer of Spiritual Communion.

In union, blessed Jesus, with the faithful gathered this day, I long to offer you praise and thanksgiving, for creation and all the blessings of this life, for the redemption won for us by your life, death, and resurrection, for the means of grace and the hope of glory. I believe that you are truly present in Word and Sacrament, and, since I cannot at this time receive communion, I pray you to come into my heart. I unite myself with you and embrace you with all my heart, my soul, and my mind. Let nothing separate me from you; let me serve you in this life until, by your grace, I come to your glorious kingdom and unending peace. Amen.

HEALING MINISTRY RETURNS

Prayers for Healing are again being offered at the Langdon Chapel during Communion.

Prayer for healing with the laying on of hands is an ancient Christian practice that has been part of services at All Saints for almost thirty years. Paused during the pandemic, we are now reintroducing healing ministry at Communion. Healing ministers are lay people whose call to this specific ministry has been discerned in community. Lay ministers of healing are trained and supervised by the rector and are assisted by the clergy. All healing is from God; healing ministers will pray with you and help you place your concerns in the hands of a loving God. The laying on of hands during healing prayer is a tangible sign of God’s healing embrace.

To pray with a healing minister, come to the Langdon Chapel either before or after receiving Communion. You are welcome to stand or kneel at the chapel altar rail. When the minister approaches, you are invited to say the name(s) and/or the concern(s) for which you wish to pray. Healing ministers keep a strict rule of confidentiality, so please share as much or as little as you wish. The minister will then lay hands on your head, shoulders, or neck and offer a prayer for God’s presence and healing. The minister may also mark the sign of the cross on your forehead.

COMMUNION ANTHEM: Stay with us

Egil Hovland (1924-2013)

Stay with us, Lord Jesus, stay with us.
Stay with us, it soon is evening.
Stay with us, Lord Jesus, stay with us, it soon is evening, and night is falling.
Jesus Christ, the world's true light!
Shine so the darkness cannot overcome it!
Stay with us, Lord Jesus, it soon is evening.
Stay with us, Lord Jesus, for night is falling.
Let your light pierce the darkness and fill your church with its glory.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Presider Let us pray.
People Loving God, we give you thanks for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood. Now send us forth a people, forgiven, healed, renewed; that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

BLESSING

from Grace Church, Brunswick, Maryland

Presider What we choose changes us. Who we love transforms us. How we create remakes us. Where we live reshapes us. So in all our choosing, O God, make us wise; in all our loving, O Christ, make us bold; in all our creating, O Spirit, give us courage; in all our living, may we become whole. And the blessing of God almighty: Creator, Christ, and Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.
People Amen.

BLESSING OF GRADUATES

At the presider's invitation all those who will graduate this year gather around the altar.

Priest In every beginning is an ending, O Holy One, and in every end something new begins. Our siblings are moving from one stage of life to another. They are ready for new learning and new experiences. Grant that childhood's hope may remain alive in them. Make them hungry for wisdom tempered with love. Help them discern the truth in all that they learn, in the people they will meet, and in the choices they will face. Keep their minds alert, their bodies safe and well. Give them hearts bold to question, yet alive to your wonders. And assure them always of your love and ours. Through Christ, your Wisdom made flesh. Amen.
